M. Anthony Burns promoted

Ryder Systems Inc., of Miami Florida, announced today that M. Anthony Burns, 40 currently president and chief operating officer, will become chief executive officer on Juanuary 1, 1983.

M. Anthony Burns is presently president, chief operating officer, and a director of Ryder System, Inc., Miami.

Burns is married to the former Joyce Jordan, daughter of Bill and DeEsta Jordan, of Heber City. They have three children.

Mr. Burns joined Ryder System in June 1974 as director-corporate planning. He was elected treasurer six months later, and has held several financial, planning, and operating positions in the company. He was elected executive Vice president-corporate planning and development in 1978, and in May 1979, he was elected executive vice president-finance and chief financial officer. In December 1979 he was elected president and chief operating officer.

Before joing Ryder, Mr. Burns was a manager and a controller for Mobil Oil Corporation for nine years.

Mr. Burns holds a bachelor of science degree in finance from Brigham Young University and an M.B.A. degree from the University of California at Berkeley. He is active in a number of civic organizations and serves as a trustee and a director of the United Way of Dade County (Florida). He also sits on the board of directors of Miami's public television station, WPBT.

Nov. 25, Cash went to Provo and bought a Silvertone electric radio.

On Jan. 11, 1941, Cash bought a new Chevy from Storm McDonald of Heber. On Dec. 16, 1941, Cash and his father registered for the Defense Guard and registered their guns.

On Sept. 4, 1942, when close to 43 years of age, Cash was accepted into the Army at Fort Douglas, other recruits, from Wasatch County, on the bus down to the center, were: Privates Lawrence Hamilton, Randall Schear, Jack B. Cummings, Grant Jones, Clarence Thompson, and James (HI) E. Lamb as acting Corporal in charge. They were let off to wait for the Army to pick them up at a bar where they were to wait over an hour. Cash wasn't too happy about this as he has never "had a drink" of liquor in all of his 83 years.

Some time later, Cash and twelve other men left Ft. Douglas were sent to Dugway Proving Grounds west of Dugway Valley and 14 miles from Simpson Springs. The first Dugway camp was not finished yet.

Cash served in the Chemical Warfare Service until he was honorably discharged from the Army on April 2, 1943. He returned home where he worked on the home farm and on other jobs as there were not many able bodied men left to keep the heavy farm work going. The women did all they could to keep things up.

On July 5, 1943 (Pioneer Day) Cash wore his uniform and marched in the parade, in Aug. of that year, he wore his uniform and carried the flag. This was the last he wore it in public and years later, he gave it, in good condition, to the Daughters of the Pioneers for exibition in their collection.

The summer of 1945, Cash